

WriteClearly.org is a clearinghouse of free plain language resources targeted toward the justice community.

With the support of a Technology Initiatives Grant (TIG) from the Legal Services Corporation, Legal Assistance of Western New York, Inc.® and Transcend Translations® created www.WriteClearly.org to make plain language examples, tools, and instruction available to the justice community for free.

Features of WriteClearly.org include:

Plain Language Library: A collection of model plain language documents that courts and legal services providers can copy and revise. Many samples are available in Spanish and other languages. These include examples such as a plain language retainer and a flier that informs court users of their right to an interpreter.

WriteClearly Gadget: A clever LawNY®-created Google Gadget™ that analyzes text for readability. Feel free to test your text online or embed this gadget in your website or intranet!

The Essential Plain Language Collection: a 96-page book with sample readable documents, before and after versions of documents, and readability tips. Download it for free at writeclearly.org.

Plain Language Online Courses: Self guided online course instruction that will teach you how to write in plain language. Created using CALI Author®. Examples of student work are also available at writeclearly.org.
