

Board Resolution

Re: recipient's refusal to produce requested materials

January 29, 1988

Whenever any recipient shall, by refusal or by invitation to negotiate or by any other means, fail to produce any material, in whole or in part, at the Corporation's request, the president of the Corporation shall be informed of that failure within 5 days thereafter. Within five working days after the receipt of such information, the president shall serve upon such a recipient a written preliminary determination of grounds for suspension of financial assistance under Part 1623 of the Corporation's regulations, unless the president shall have previously determined that the Corporation has no right to the requested information under the Legal Services Act and the regulation and guidelines issued pursuant thereto. The president shall report to the Board of Directors in writing on all such refusals no later than 30 days after the initial date of such refusal or no later than ten days before the next Board meeting, whichever first occurs.
